

Sing to the Lord

CONSECRATION SERVICE

CUSTER ROAD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
PLANO, TEXAS ❁ APRIL 9, 2006

Welcome

Today the community of faith at Custer Road United Methodist Church (CRUMC) gathers in joyful thanksgiving to consecrate its renovated sanctuary and new pipe organ to the glory of God. Almost three years ago, a church-wide desire to enrich worship converged with an aging sanctuary, a rapidly growing music ministry and long-held plans for a pipe organ to form the Sing to the Lord (STL) project.

The Sing to the Lord sanctuary renovation and pipe organ project included chancel reconfiguration and pipe house construction, new flooring, interior paint, comprehensive audiovisual upgrades, electrical upgrades, pew refurbishing, and the construction and installation of the pipe organ. Gifted professionals and dedicated laity worked together prayerfully and seamlessly to create a worship environment that would inspire, uplift and glorify God for generations to come. Custer Road UMC gratefully acknowledges the leadership, expertise, teamwork, and donor support that made this achievement possible.

We give thanks to God for His great providence and extend a warm welcome to all who join us today in worship and celebration.

Reverend Paul Goodrich, Senior Minister
CUSTER ROAD UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

"Sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things."

Psalm 98:1

A word about the project...

From the earliest contact with our firm, which came as an e-mail from organist Kay Sendrey on October 31, 2003, informing us that Schantz Organ Company was being considered as a potential builder of a new pipe organ, we knew that the Custer Road United Methodist Church organ project would be special for our firm. Beginning with that initial e-mail, this project has been conducted with the highest level of professionalism. Each step of the process — initial inquiry, selection as the builder, final specification and contract negotiations — has been a perfect example of organization, efficiency and exemplary contractor/client relations.

The construction of a pipe organ is a large undertaking that requires the coordination of many minute details. It is often difficult for clients to understand the importance of each level of detail that is all-important to the organ builder. Dwayne Short, Schantz area representative, noted that this project has been one of the best-organized projects we have had the pleasure to complete. Every stage of building renovation and organ space preparation was completed on schedule, allowing us to continue our work in the design and construction of the new instrument.

With the new instrument's completion, it is our hope it will provide a worthy resource for the advancement of the musical arts and add a rich new dimension to the worship experience and ministry at Custer Road United Methodist Church.

The Schantz Organ Company was founded in 1873 by A. J. Tschantz (later changed to Schantz), the son of immigrants from Switzerland. After a brief venture into the construction of reed organs, Tschantz became interested in the pipe organ and soon began building them. His three sons joined him in the family business and subsequently turned the operations over to their sons. From these humble beginnings, the small family business has grown into an internationally known firm, America's oldest and largest pipe organ builder still under management of the founding family.

The overall quality of the finished pipe organ is only as good as the materials utilized in its construction. Thus, Schantz Organ employs only the highest quality materials available. A talented and experienced staff oversees the construction of nearly every component, including the blower that supplies air to the instrument, wind lines, reservoirs, windchests, pipes, console, and organ cases. In this way Schantz artisans control quality throughout the entire construction process from initial design to the first notes played.

Careful management by successive generations of the Schantz family has brought the firm to a position of leadership under the third and fourth generations. Financially solid and boasting one of the most advanced and complete organ building facilities in the world, the Schantz Organ Company has received commissions ranging in size from small organs of a few ranks for chapels, practice facilities and residences to complex designs for some of the largest halls, churches and cathedrals in the world.

CUSTER ROAD UMC Music Ministry

Today's choral and instrumental offerings are provided by groups within Custer Road UMC's diverse and expansive music ministry. Since the church's inception 26 years ago, music has played a vital role in providing opportunities for spiritual, personal and musical growth. Custer Road UMC's music ministry includes the adult Chancel Choir and youth Revelation Choir, five adult vocal ensembles, seven children's choirs, seven hand bell choirs, six adult instrumental ensembles and two youth instrumental ensembles. These dynamic groups continually provide a broad variety of inspirational music for worship under the exceptional direction of Reverend Timothy Morrison, CRUMC Minister of Music since 1985, and the outstanding accompaniment of Kay Sendrey, Church Organist since 1983.

Bradley Hunter Welch

CONCERT ORGANIST

This afternoon's guest organist is Bradley Hunter Welch, whom The American Organist calls "a world-class virtuoso." A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Welch began playing the piano at age 10 and organ at age 13.

In 1997, he graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in organ performance and won the Dean's Award for Outstanding Performance at Baylor University.

Welch pursued graduate studies, receiving the Master of Music degree in organ performance from Yale University School of Music/Institute of Sacred Music in 1999. A year later, he earned the Artist Diploma and was awarded the Horatio Parker Memorial Prize, the most prestigious prize awarded by the Yale faculty. That year, he received the Master of Musical Arts degree, having completed all class work for Yale's Doctor of Musical Arts degree.

While at Yale, he also received the Robert Baker Prize, given to an incoming organ student considered among the top two percent of the nation's young organists, the Charles Ives Prize, and the Yale School of Music Alumni Association Prize.

Among notable competitions which have brought Bradley to the attention of the music world: first place in the undergraduate division of the William Hall Organ Competition in San Antonio in 1994; national finalist in the organ division of the Music Teachers National Association competition in 1995; first place in the American Guild of Organists Region VII Competition for Young Organists in 1995; first place winner and recipient of the Audience Prize in the Dallas International Organ Competition in 2003 (also won the Audience Prize in 2000); and featured artist at three regional conventions of The American Guild of Organists in 2005. He made his European debut in 2005 at the Chartres Festival in France.

Welch currently serves as organist and artist-in-residence at Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas.

OPENING VOLUNTARY

FANFARE (Psalm 81:1-3)

John Cook (1918-1984)

Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob.

Raise a song, sound the tambourine, the sweet lyre with the harp.

Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our festal day.

Concert Organist

CALL TO WORSHIP, PSALM 96:1-4

Kay Sendrey

CRUMC Organist 1984-Present

Leader: We have come to praise God and celebrate the presence of God in our midst.

People: We have come to give thanks for the profound way God has touched our lives.

Leader: Sing to the Lord a new song! Sing to the Lord all the earth!

People: Sing to the Lord, praise His name! Proclaim His salvation day after day!

Leader: Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous deeds among all people.

People: For great is the Lord and most worthy of praise.

Leader: All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and with us sing.

People: Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

LITANY OF GRATITUDE

Reverend Paul Goodrich

Senior Minister 1995-2006

Leader: Lord, many hearts and hands have brought us to this day. Thank you for providing our architects Brown & Brown with their inspired vision of your holy sanctuary.

People: With grateful hearts, we thank thee Lord.

Leader: Thank you, Lord, for Scott & Reid Contractors, Acoustic Dimensions and Ward Manufacturing, whose skill and integrity transformed that vision into the beauty that surrounds us today.

People: With grateful hearts, we thank thee Lord.

Leader: Today we praise your name with the powerful and inspiring music of a magnificent pipe organ. We thank you, Lord, for the many people of the Schantz Organ Company whose expertise, caring and craftsmanship will enrich worship for generations to come.

People: With grateful hearts, we thank thee Lord.

Leader: We desire to honor you, Lord in everything we do. Our Sing to the Lord Committee has trusted and served you with selfless dedication. Faithful members of Custer Road United Methodist Church lovingly sacrificed to provide resources for this project.

People: With grateful hearts, we thank thee Lord. All praise and glory is yours.

CONSECRATION

Reverend James E. Dorff

Provost, North Texas Conference

Leader: We learn from the Holy Scriptures that devout men and women set apart temples for the worship of God. May the glory of the Lord fill this house, as we consecrate this divine space to the living Lord.

People: Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of Creation!

Leader: From the earliest of time, people have built musical instruments to glorify God and inspire worship. We consecrate this organ to the honor and glory of almighty and everlasting God.

People: O my soul praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation.

Leader: May God increase the kingdom of Jesus Christ in our hearts and awaken our souls to heed the voice of the Holy Spirit as we consecrate our lives to the service of the Lord.

People: All ye who hear, now to His temple draw near.

Leader: For generations to come, may this sanctuary be a place where worship of the living God lifts the fallen, comforts the grieving, strengthens the weak, heals the broken, challenges the strong, teaches the young, saves the lost, and blesses all who pass this way. We consecrate our worship to the God who ignites our souls and transforms our lives.

People: Join me in glad adoration!

The Schantz Organ AT CUSTER ROAD UMC

The pipe organ at Custer Road United Methodist Church is among the largest, most complex instruments built by Schantz Organ Company in its 133-year history. The instrument is actually a double organ. The Chancel Organ comprises four manual and pedal divisions with 75 ranks of pipes. The Gallery Organ, located in the rear gallery, contains two manual and pedal divisions with 17 ranks of pipes. The entire organ is playable from the main Chancel console. The two-manual Gallery console plays the Gallery Organ and can also control the entire organ through the use of "blind" general pistons copied from the front console.

The supporting structure of the instrument and much of the mechanism (windchests) is made of poplar wood. The majority of the metal pipe work is tin-lead alloy, but the larger pipes are made of zinc, a stronger, yet lighter metal than tin and lead. The Trompette en Chamade that embellishes the front painted maple casework is polished copper.

The resources of the instrument are distributed in four locations in the renovated sanctuary. The Great and Swell divisions of the Chancel Organ are installed in chambers immediately behind the Chancel case. These chambers were built especially for the installation of this new instrument. The Choir, Solo, Pedal 32' Ophicleide and 16' Bourdon are housed in the chambers on either side of the Chancel. The Gallery Organ is housed in its cases at the rear of the back gallery. With organ pipes in these various locations, the instrument is able to produce the organ's equivalent of a "surround sound" effect. With 71 stops and a total of 92 ranks of pipes totaling 5,284 pipes, the instrument contains a variety of organ tones ranging from the softest whisper of sound to the noble Tuba Mirabilis and the declamatory Trompette en Chamade, which is installed on the Chancel case, adding visual interest to the organ's design.

Each Schantz organ is a custom designed instrument built to fit the physical space and the musical needs of each unique project. Literally no two instruments are alike. As such, numerous hours are necessary for the construction of each new organ. The Custer Road UMC instrument required more than 25,000 hours of labor for the design, construction, installation, and tonal finishing.
